

How could I make a 70-themed donation?

Currency

You could donate the equivalent of 70 coins in circulation, e.g. 70x:
1p = 70p; 2p = £1.40
5p = £3.50; 10p = £7
20p = £14; 50p = £35
£1 = £70; £2 = £140

Stamps

You could donate the equivalent cost of 70 stamps:
£60.90: 70 x 2nd class
£119: 70 x 1st class

When I came into prison my future looked bleak, now I have a better future, I feel more confident, thanks to my befriender

Join us in celebrating our 70th anniversary by helping us raise the funds to keep supporting more isolated people in prison, either by donating or taking on a sponsored challenge!

It's a great service if you have no one on the outside. It could be a life saver for someone

Small challenges

Set yourself a small challenge to do something 70 times this year, and commit to making a donation (e.g. £1, 50p, 20p etc) each time you do it. Donate the total to us once you have reached 70! Some ideas to get you thinking:

- 70 small acts of kindness
- complete 70 hours of volunteering
- read 70 books

How could I fundraise?

Set yourself a challenge that you can ask friends, family and colleagues to sponsor you to complete. It could be participating in an organised event (e.g. a run, cycle, swim etc) or your own challenge (e.g. digital detox, sponsored silence, etc). You could theme your challenge around 70 (e.g. walking 70 miles, reading 70 books).

You could also organise a fundraising event, like a bake sale, coffee morning, or a quiz.

It's changed my thoughts and how to tackle my time in prison. To be able to have that connection with the outside world is like a breath of fresh air for me

I am really grateful people still care and want to help people who are lonely in prison and feeling isolated

How will New Bridge support me?

We can help you to come up with an idea for a sponsored/fundraising challenge, as well as providing sponsorship forms and things like branded T-shirts for sports events, pens for quizzes, rice paper cake toppers, etc. We will also share your justgiving link with our supporters (and can help you set up your fundraising page).

Drop us an email to share your ideas and start your fundraising challenge!: info@newbridgefoundation.org.uk
